Summer Reading Activities for Incoming Third Graders

1. Select two books from the reading list. One must be informational (nonfiction) and the other literary (fiction).
2. After completing the required readings of your choice (One Informational and One Literary Title), choose one activity to complete for each book.
3. Be creative with the materials you will use as: markers, paints, construction paper, craft supplies, recycled items, etc.
4. You can use your own drawings, clip art, or internet pictures. Any hand-drawn illustrations should always be completed in color.
5. Spelling and grammar count on all projects!
6. You can print or type your project, BUT all information should be written in your own words. NO PLAGIARISM
7. All book projects must be dated, measure 8 1/2 x 11, contain the title of the book and author's name.

Informational Text Create a tri-fold for your nonfiction text. Tri-fold should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • illustrations with captions • glossary (minimum 3 words) • Did you know facts? (5 facts) • Remember to include title/author 	Literary Text Create a timeline of the book. Your timeline must include at least 10 events with descriptions in order from beginning to end of the story along with pictures to represent each event.
Informational Text Write a poem about the idea, topic, or information presented in your book.	Literary Text Create a collage around central idea or theme in the book. For example: friendship, courage, family, etc. Write a half page description of the central idea or theme presented in the collage.
Informational/Literary Text Make a poster advertising your book so Someone else will want to read it. Write a half page explanation why someone will want to read it.	Informational/Literary Text You are the reporter. Write a front-page news story or a report live from the scene.

Projects should not exceed the size of a sheet of paper!

Effort, creativity and neatness count!

We highly recommend utilizing the following free online educational websites on the student portal to assist your child in preparation for third grade.

A black and white poster for the M-DCPS Summer Reading 2021 program. The title "M-DCPS" is at the top in large, bold, 3D letters. Below it, "SUMMER READING 2021" is written in a similar style, with a star and a rocket ship to the right. In the center, a laptop screen displays the "K-5 Summer Reading Program" website, which features logos for "axis360", "myOW", and "info". To the right of the laptop is a QR code with the text "Scan Me" above it. At the bottom, a text box says "Free access to eBooks and audiobooks for all interest levels for grades K-5". The website URL "http://read.dadeschools.net" is at the bottom right. A small watermark "Made with PosterMyWall.com" is at the bottom left.
